Preface.

1154010

Several years ago the author became interested in the history of his own ancestry, and commenced gathering such information as was available in regard to it. Town, county, church, and probate records were searched for information in regard to the Currier family. Local histories were read for information in regard to the places where the members of the family lived. Much information was also obtained from members of the family and from family records.

At first there was no intention of publishing the material collected, but as more and more information became available the author was urged by other members of the family to arrange and publish what he had collected. The present volume is the result of this request, and it is hoped that it will prove of interest not only to the present but also to the future generations of the Currier family.

The plan of the book will, it is believed, be easily understood. Beginning with Richard Currier of Salisbury and Amesbury, Mass., and his descendants of the second and third generations, the work has been carried sufficiently far to enable any of the present generation to trace back their relationship.

The object of the author has been to preserve all the important facts which can be gathered in regard to the family. The book therefore is more than a collection of names and dates, and it is hoped that it will prove more interesting on that account.

It is impossible to enumerate all the books from which material has been collected. However, mention should be made of "The Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury," by David W. Hoyt, and "Merrill's History of Amesbury," which gave much information about Richard Currier and his descendants. The copies of wills and inventories were obtained from the records of Essex County at Salem, Mass., and have been rendered practically as they appear on record.

To all the individuals who have in any manner assisted in the preparation of this work the author tenders his hearty thanks. Especially is credit due to Mr. Edward A. Brown, Librarian of the Amesbury, Mass., Public Library, for his kindness in furnishing much valuable information from the records deposited in the Amesbury Library. Thanks are also due to Dr. John M. Currier of Newport, Vermont. To him more than to any other individual is the author indebted for encouragement and assistance in preparing this book. Parts Two and Three are very largely his work and he has taken charge of the printing of the book.

Notwithstanding all the care which has been exercised, and all the pains taken to verify dates and names, mistakes will occur. Some of these have been corrected in the appendix, but it is probable that others exist. Those into whose hands this volume may fall will, therefore, confer a favor by advising the undersigned of any errors which they may discover. Any additional genealogical information will also be gratefully received.

HARVEY L. CURRIER.

PART ONE.

GENEALOGY OF RICHARD CURRIER OF SALISBURY AND AMESBURY, MASS., (1616—1686-7), AND MANY OF HIS DE- SCENDANTS.

BY HARVEY LEAR CURRIER.

1. Richard Currier<sup>1</sup>, of Salisbury and Amesbury, Mass., "planter" and "millwright", one of the original settlers of Salisbury, his name appearing on a list of the inhabitants of the town at the time of its incorporation, in 1640, was born in England or Scotland May 3, 1616.

He married first, prior to 1643, Ann——, who died between April 5, 1675, and October 26, 1676, she having released her right of dower in a certain piece of property on July 8, 1671. He married second, October 26, 1676, Joanna Pindor, daughter of Henry Pindor and widow of Valentine Rowell and of William Sargent, who died October, 1690, aged about 69 years.

He received land in Salisbury in 1641 and 1642, and in Salisbury new town (now Amesbury) in 1654, 1658, 1659, 1662, 1664, and 1668. February 16, 1642, he sold to Abraham Morrill six house lots which were given to him by the town of Salisbury, containing seven acres, and January 20, 1644, he bought Joseph Moyce's "new house, land and all things thereunto belonging."

He was a commoner and was taxed in 1650. He was one of the signers of the articles of agreement between the old and new town, in 1654, and his name heads one list of the first commoners of Salisbury new town, 1654-5.

In 1652 he and Anthony Colby were given power to lay out a road four rods wide "from ye mill bridge to ye plain that goeth to ye Lion's Mouth", and in 1655 he and William Barnes were chosen "to take account of all staves due the town and examine them for the town and to give account to said company when they shall call for it; also to take account of ye saw-mill which do saw for the use of the town."

In 1656 he and Thomas Macy were authorized to build a saw-mill on the west side of Powow river at the falls, with the privilege of using all the timber on the common not included in the grant to the former mill, "excepting oak and the right of the people to make canoes."

For this privilege they were to pay the town six pounds per annum for ten years, in boards at current prices. No logs were to be carried to the east side of the river to be sawed on penalty of ten shillings. They agreed to saw all the logs on shares, as the following extract from the record shows:

"So the said Thomas Macy and Richard Currier do engage to saw what logs the townsmen bring to the mill for their own use, to saw them to the halves within a month after they are brought to the mill if there be water, the first logs that come to be first sawne and so the rest in order as they are brought."

Thomas Macy sold his interest in the mill in 1658, and removed from town in 1659. That Richard Currier owned and operated it for many years is shown by the following deposition dated September 25, 1682:

"The deposition of Richard Currier, aged about sixty-six years, testifieth that I keep a saw-mill at Amesbury near unto the saw-mill that do belong to Salisbury upon the same river and I have sawne this Spring about five or six thousand feet of boards a week for three months together, and do swear that ye saw-mill that do belong unto Salisbury is no ways inferior to the mill at Amesbury and has been as well improved, and further say that the saw-mills did sett about four months but had not a full head of water."

At a town meeting held March 10, 1660, he and John Hoyt, Sr., and Anthony Colby were chosen Prudential men, "to order all affairs given them in writing."

He was acting clerk of Salisbury new town in 1660-1, and at the March meeting in 1662 was chosen "to keep the the book of records and to record all meetings and to be allowed twelve pence for each meeting." He was also authorized to get a new record book, the town to pay the cost. He held the office until December 14, 1674, when he was succeeded by his son, Deacon Thomas Currier.

He was clerk of writs, commissioner to try small cases, and a selectman fifteen years. He last served as a selectman in 1682-3. It was, however, against his will and he declined to serve and was fined one shilling. Several others were chosen and declined, but finally on being re-chosen he consented to serve.

In 1665 he was one of a committee of three to build the first meeting-house in the new town, and one of a committee of two to secure a minister. In the seating of the Amesbury meeting-house, 1667, his name stands first "to set at the tabell;" but he was apparently a member of Salisbury church in 1677.

May 14, 1666, he was chosen to go to the General Court and present the petition of the new town for a separation from the old town of Salisbury. The petition was duly presented by him at a session of the General Court convened at Boston May 23, 1666, and the prayer of the petitioners was granted early in the session. The name of the town was changed to Amesbury in 1667, and the change of name confirmed by the General Court May 27, 1668; just and full bounds allowed to Amesbury May 12, 1675; part of Salisbury called "Little Salisbury" annexed March 15, 1844; part established as Merrimack April 11, 1876; part of Salisbury annexed June 16, 1886, to take effect July 1, 1886.

In 1661 he gave his son-in-law, Captain Samuel Foot, and his daughter, Hannah (Currier) Foot, the place he bought of George Martyn, and in 1671 bought it back again by way of exchange, giving him thirty acres at Cobler's brook, as shown by the following extracts from the old Norfolk County records:

"Richard Currier of Salisbury, planter, for love to my son and daughter, Samuel Foot and wife Hannah, the dwelling house and land I bought of George Martyn in Salisbury new town, bounded by ye street and John Hoyt, Jr.; also ye landing place by Pawwaus river, formerly said Martyn's, May 5, 1661. Wit. Sam. Winsley, Sr., and Philip Challis. Ack. in court at Hampton October 14, 1662."

"Samuel Foot of Amesbury, seaman, conveyed to my father-in-law Richard Currier of Amesbury, planter, ye dwelling house and land given to me by my said father in Amesbury, bounded by ye street, John Hoyt, Jr., Richard Currier and ye landing place by ye side of Pawwaus river, formerly belonging to George Martyn, 8: 5m: 1671. Wit. Thomas Bradbury and George Carre, Jr. Ack. by grantor and his wife Hannah released dower, July 8, 1671, before Robert Pike, commissioner."

"Richard Currier of Emsbery, planter, for house and land, conveyed to Samuel Foot of Emsbery, planter, my 30-acre lot of upland in Emsbery, bounded by Philip Challis, John Jimson, Cobler's brook and highway, July 8, 1671. Wit. Thomas Bradbury and George Carre, Jr. Ack. by grantor, his wife Ann releasing dower, July 8, 1671, before Robert Pike, commissioner."

His name appears frequently on the records of deeds, he having owned a large amount of real estate during his life, one deed of his, conveying real estate, was written in 1685, acknowledged the day of his death, and not recorded until 1709. So thoroughly had he given away his property, that there was no administration of his estate until about twenty-five years after his death.

His grandson, Captain Richard Currier, was appointed administrator November 6, 1710; bond dated November 6, 1710; inventory taken March 26, 1711, and inventory and account filed March, 28, 1711. Only one lot of land and his "common right" in Amesbury are entered.

He was a soldier in the Narragansett war, although nearly sixty years of age, and his descendants drew land in Narragansett township No. 1, now Buxton, York County, Maine, on his original right as a Narragansett soldier.

In February, 1675, the constables of Marlboro, Sudbury, etc., were to care for billeting the Plymouth forces passing through the towns; and the constables of Lynn, etc., were to care for billeting the three Norfolk County soldiers, John Dickison, Richard Currier, and Thomas Mudgett, for Abram Morrill, until they came to Salisbury their home. (Massachusetts Archives).

Richard Currier, John Weed, Sr., and Samuel Foot, trustees for the town of Amesbury, sold to William Osgood, Sr., in 1683-4, house and land bought of John Hoyt, Jr., for the use of the ministry.

He was evidently one of the most prominent men of Salisbury and Amesbury. See the Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury, by David W. Hoyt, and Merrill's History of Amesbury.

His last days were spent at the home of his wife's son, Philip Rowell. He died February 22, 1686-7, by drowning. He had at least two children,—Hannah and Thomas Currier and perhaps Samuel Currier of Haverhill, Mass., was his son or younger brother.

The following is a copy of the inventory and account of administration of his estate taken from the original papers at the Probate Office in Salem, Massachusetts:

“An inventory of the estate of Richard Currier, late of Amesbury, deceased, taken by us the subscribers (being sworn) this twenty-sixth day of March, 1711:

A lot of land in Amesbury in a place call The Threescore Acres, about two acres, ..... Four pounds.
His common right in Amesbury ..... Ten shillings.
Total.....Four pounds, Ten Shillings.

John Blasdel, } Appraisers.
Thomas Hoyt, }

Sworn, per administration, March 28, 1711.”

Account of administration on the estate of Mr. Richard Currier of Amesbury, deceased, rendered by his grandson, Richard Currier, March 28, 1711:

The said estate is credited by real estate as per inventory, four pounds and ten shillings, and the administrator prays allowance for the following charges:

To bond and letter of administration .....	0	05	0
To recording the inventory.....	0	02	6

2. Hannah Currier<sup>2</sup>, only daughter of Richard and Ann Currier, was born in Salisbury, Mass., July 8, 1643. She married June 23, 1659, Captain Samuel Foot of Amesbury, Mass., "planter," who received land in Amesbury in 1659, 1660, 1662, and 1668. He was a townsman in 1660; had seat in meeting-house in 1667, being one of the favored three who were seated at the "tabell." He took the oath of allegiance in 1677; frequently served as moderator; held other local offices, and was a representative to the General Court in 1689 and 1690. He was not a signer of the articles of agreement between the old and new town of Salisbury, but took up his residence in the new town about 1658, when he was chosen one of a committee to lay out the river lots. He drew lot No. 1, which lay along the western side of the Buttonwood road, but cut off from the river by John Weed's ten-acre lot. He lived at a place called "Jamaca" and it is very probable that his house was the garrison house, several times spoken of in Merrill's History of Amesbury as Captain Foot's fort. He was taken by the Indians in the assault on Amesbury and tortured to death July 7, 1690. She died after August 26, 1708, she having witnessed her brother's will on that date. They had one son, John Foot, born July 9, 1660. (See

The Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury, and Merrill's History of Amesbury).

3. Deacon Thomas Currier<sup>2</sup>, son of Richard and Ann Currier, of Amesbury, Mass., "yeoman," was born in Salisbury, March 8, 1646. He married December 9, 1668, Mary Osgood, daughter of William and Elizabeth Osgood of Salisbury, who was born in Salisbury, March 3, 1649-50, and died at Amesbury November 2, 1705, and from whom he inherited one-fourth of the old saw-mill in Salisbury, which he bequeathed to his nine sons, equal shares alike.

He served the town of Amesbury in almost every capacity. He succeeded his father as town clerk December 14, 1674, and transcribed the records in a neat hand until his death, a period of nearly thirty-eight years. He was a selectman seventeen years and held many other local offices. and was also employed in settling estates and various other matters. He was a witness to the will of Edmund Elliott, which his father wrote in 1675, and occasionally recorded meetings when his father was clerk, as the records or portions of them prior to 1674 are in his handwriting.

He probably lived near the mills and perhaps in the vicinity of the Lion's Mouth. He had twelve children, nine sons and three daughters,—Hannah, Thomas, Richard, Samuel, Mary, Anne, William, John, Joseph, Benjamin, Ebenezer, and Daniel Currier. (William Osgood, in 1697, deeded to his daughter Mary, then the wife of Thomas Currier, one-fourth of a saw-mill in Salisbury; the Old Saw-mill, so called, on the Powow river near the corn mill).

Deacon Thomas Currier died September 27, 1712. His will, dated August 26, 1708, was proved Nov. 3, 1712, and reads as follows:

WILL OF DEACON THOMAS CURRIER.

He was one of the original proprietors of township No. 1 (New Amesbury), now Warner, N. H., and at a meeting of the proprietors held March 28, 1765, he and Deacon Stephen Sargent and Nehemiah Ordway were chosen selectmen for the year, with authority to collect the money voted by the company during the year and pay out the same to those to whom the proprietors were indebted, also to sell delinquent rights of lands and give deeds of them in behalf of the proprietors. He was also one of a committee of four to rectify the former bounds of the 40-acre "settlers' lots," and renew the bounds round the town; also to lay out eighty or one hundred acre lots to each proprietor, and employ some suitable person or persons to run the saw-mill for the benefit of the proprietors. At the annual meeting of the proprietors of the town held at Amesbury, Mass., March, 1766, he and Simeon Bartlett and Daniel Quimby were chosen to lay out the first division of 60-acre lots, and also to survey and lay out eighty acres for the potash lot voted to Richard Harbard, Stephen Emery and James Walker of Concord, N. H., on condition that they set up and carry on a potash plant in the town. At a meeting of the proprietors held May 29, 1771, he was chosen one of a committee of three to prosecute trespassers on lands, or for cutting timber. (See History of Warner). He had a grant of three hundred and twenty acres of land in the town, which he bequeathed to his sons, Deacon John Currier of Hopkinton, N. H., and Daniel Currier of Warner, N. H.

EZRA CURRIER OF BATH, NEW HAMPSHIRE, AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

BY HIS GRANDSON,
JOHN McNAB CURRIER, M. D.

Ezra<sup>5</sup> Currier, (Gideon<sup>4</sup>, Benjamin<sup>3</sup>, Thomas<sup>2</sup>, Richard<sup>1</sup>) of Amesbury, Mass., Chester, N. H., Lancaster, N. H., Ryegate, Vt., Haverhill and Bath, N. H., was born in Amesbury, Mass., June 25, 1749; died in Bath, N. H., March 23, 1825, and was buried in an unmarked and an uncared-for cemetery* south of the "Narrows," in Bath, where his wife was buried nine years later. He married Ruth Cassidy, and had six children: Benjamin, Samuel, Gideon, Sally, Polly, and Betsey. She died in Bath, September 25, 1834, aged about ninety-two years.

Very little information can be obtained at the present time, concerning him from the time his father moved from Amesbury, Mass., to Chester, N. H., till he sold a piece of land in Lancaster, N. H., when he gave his residence as Haverhill, N. H. The following abstract from a deed in the Grafton County records, shows that he resided in Lancaster previous to Jan. 30, 1778:

"On January 30, 1778, Ezra Currier of Haverhill, N. H., deeded to Timothy Nash of Lunenburg in the County

* These grounds being a clayey deposit were all dug away and made into brick by a company of brick makers in the years 1908 and 1909. In digging away the clayey earth the workmen found several graves with many bones remaining undecomposed, but they were thrown into the brick earth by the workmen without any feelings of humanity.

of Gloucester & State of New York (alias Vermont), 140 acres of land in Lancaster, N. H., being the house Lots & Meadow Lots that I lived on & improved in Martin's Meadow (so called) Daniel Warner & Nath Barrel being the Original Proprietors. Consideration: Three hundred pounds lawful Money of said Province. In presence of J. Hurd and Thos. Miner. Acknowledged before J. Hurd Justice peace same day."

The Grafton County records do not show that he ever owned any land in Haverhill, N. H., but while residing there he purchased land in Bath, as the following abstract of the deed shows:

"On July 21, 1778, Timothy Barron of Haverhill, N. H., for Two hundred pounds, deeded to Ezra Currier of Haverhill, Husbandman, a certain Tract or Parcel of Land in the Township of Bath & County of Grafton aforesd: situated between the south side of ammonusac River and the north Line of Haverhill being Lot number Sixteen containing one hundred acres more or less as may appear by the plan of said Township and was voted to me being an original proprietor, as a pitch Lot as may be seen in the Book of Records of the propriety of said Bath. In presence of J. Hurd and Nathan Powers. Signed by
August 6, 1778 before J. Hurd and recorded the same day."

On this land purchased of Timothy Barron Ezra Currier lived seven or eight years, and during that time bought on, and sold off several pieces to other parties as the following abstracts of the deeds show:

"On June 27, 1783, Joseph Burt of Westmorland, N. H., for Eighteen Pounds Lawfull money deeded to Ezra Currier of Bath, N. H., all that whole Right or Share of Land in the Township of Bath in the State of New Hampshire which was Granted unto William Willard by his Exclcy Bening Wentworth Esqr. a late Governor of New-hampshire by virtue of the said William Willard's Name being in the Charter or grant of sd Township. In presence of Levi Aldrich and George Aldrich. Acknowledged before Benja. Bellows, Justice Peace, June 27, 1783. Recorded August 23, 1783."

"On the 10th November 1783 Ezra Currier of Bath, N. H., for the sum of nine Pounds lawful money, deeded to William Abbot of Haverhill, N. H., all the undivided land belonging to one full right or share of land in the Township of Bath aforsd, and which right I purchased of Joseph Burt and whereof William Willard was original proprietor. In presence of Abial Chamberlain and William Haseltine. Acknowledged Dec. 9, 1784. Recorded Dec. 5, 1788."

"On October 11, 1784, Ezra Currier of Bath, N. H., for the sum of thirty-three pounds lawful money, deeded to William Abbott of Haverhill, N. H., Eleven acres of land being intervale in the Township of Bath; being part of the West end of the meadow lot I am now in possession of. In presence of ——— Whittlesy and Ebenezer Bacon. Acknowledged Dec. 9, 1784. Recorded Decr. 5, 1788."

"On this ninth day of Septr in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred & eighty four & the ninth year of the independence of america, Ezra Currier of Bath, N. H., for the sum of thirty pounds lawful money, sold to Reuben Stickney of Bath, N. H., one lot of land in the township of Bath, containing one hundred acres more or less, laid out & drawn to the original right of William Willard. In presence of Robert Sympson and William Haseltine. Acknowledged June 19, 1786. Recorded Sept. 10, 1790."

From the following abstract of a deed to Henry Hancock, we learn that Ezra Currier disposed of his home in Bath, and we hear no more of his whereabouts for nearly one year:

“On January 11, 1785, Ezra Currier of Bath, N. H., deeded to Henry Hancock of Haverhill, N. H., for One hundred and Eighty pounds Lawful Money, One Lott of Land No. nineteen in the Town of Bath whereon I do now live excepting eleven acres of the West End, the said Lott of Land containing One hundred and forty acres more or less bounded by Haverhill line on one side by ammonsock River on the Other side. Signed by Ezra Currier and Ruth Currier (her X mark), in presence of Smith Williams and Silas Porter (<sup>his</sup>⌘<sub>mark</sub>). Acknowledged before Jacob Hurd Just. Paes by Ezra Currier March 28th 1785. Mrs. Ruth Currier Sept. 1785. Recorded May 23 1786.”

The following abstract of a deed shows that Ezra Currier was residing in Newbury on the 28th day of March 1786:

“On March 28, 1786 Ezra Currier of Newbury, Vt., for fifteen pounds Lawfull money, deeded to John Haseltine of Gunthrite, [Gunthwaite?] N. H., a certain lot of land containing sixty acres, lying in the Town of Bath, N. H., being a part of the Original right of William Willard. Witnessed by Er. Chamberlin and Silas Chamberlin. Acknowledged at Ryegate Sept. 26, 1786, before Josiah Page. Recorded March 12, 1795.”

The following communications from Mr. F. P. Wells, author of the History of Ryegate, seems to establish Ezra Currier's residence after leaving Bath:

On April 3, 1906 Mr. F. P. Wells of Newbury, writes: “In Mr. Miller's abstract of recorded deeds I find one dated; April 19, 1785 from James Smith of Ryegate to Ezra Currier of Newbury, for 50 £ lawful money of lots 121 & 122, S. Div. And one dated March 28, 1786, from Ezra Currier of Ryegate, of the same date to William Tice of Ryegate, for 300 bushels of good merchantable wheat, and Signed by Ezra Currier and Ruth Currier of Ryegate. The latter made her mark. It would seem that they lived here awhile, moving to Ryegate between the above two dates."

On Jan. 30, 1907, Mr. F. P. Wells of Newbury, Vt., still further writes: "Ezra Currier and wife, on Aug. 12, 1786 sold to William Tice of Ryegate, his land. Mr Tice's wife was a sister of General Whitelaw. Ezra Currier lived in Newbury when James Smith sold him land in Ryegate April 19, 1785."

On Feb. 11, 1907, Mr. F. P. Wells of Newbury writes: "I was at the town clerk's office [Newbury] last Saturday but found no mention of Ezra Currier as grantor or grantee of land"

The following communication from the Town Clerk of Landaff, N. H., shows that Ezra Currier must have resided for a short time in that town in 1788. Certainly long enough to have his two boys elected to a petty office. Sylvanus Currier mentioned therein is not a near connection to Ezra Currier:

On November 15, 1880 Henry H. Noyes, town clerk of Landaff, N. H., writes:—"I have searched the records all through, and the first and only where your family are mentioned is in the records of a meeting held in this town March 11th, 1788, where Benjamin and Samuel Currier were chosed Hog-reeves. In the Record of Births and Deaths is the following:

"Sylvenus Currier and Anna Hardy were married and their children were born as followeth: Letta Currier born October 27, 1808. The above records are all of the Currier family that I can find. There are no old tax lists that I know of before 1811."

The following abstract of a deed of a piece of property in Lime to Ezra Currier of Ryegate shows that he was still a resident of Ryegate and was a man of some means, but I am unable to state any further information about the property. That was a town in which he had near relatives and he might have known that it was a good investment:

"On June 21, 1802 for five hundred dollars Frederick Dodge of Lime, N. H., deeded to Ezra Currier of Ryegate, Vt., a certain piece of Land being & lying in Lime aforesaid beginning on the west line of my farm two rods east of the bridge, thence running north twenty five degrees west, ten rods to a stake & stones, then South 33° west twelve rods to a Stake & Stones, then South 25° east ten rods to a Stake & Stones then on my sd line to the first mentioned bounds containing one hundred & Twenty rods of land together with the Grist mill now standing thereon, with the whole of mill privilege thereto belonging. In presence of John Fairfield and Benjamin Currier. Acknowledged June 21, 1802. Recorded August 25, 1802."

The following abstract of a deed shows that Ezra Currier was still a resident of Ryegate and had up to that time owned land in Bath N. H.:

"On January 19, 1807, Ezra Currier of Ryegate, Vt., deeded to John Haddock [Hadlock ?] of Bath, N. H., for one hundred dollars, the Easterly half of Hundred acre Lot of land Numbered twenty in Bath County of Grafton state of New Hampshire lying in The first Range of hundred acre Lots first Divission west side of ammonosuck River meaning to Comprehend and take in one half of said hundred acre lot be The same more or Less. Witnessed by Isaac Moore and Jesse Frye. Recorded March 23, 1807."

In 1807 or 1808 Ezra Currier left Rygate and moved to Bath, N. H., where he continued to reside until his death in 1825.

grist mills, then known as Smith's Mills. She was buried in Landaff. For some time after her death her mother kept house for Samuel Currier; then he kept house alone for several years. They had no children.

On March 7, 1816, Samuel Currier married, 2nd, Rachel Annis, born June 27, 1793, daughter of David and Lois (Hunt) Annis of Bath. She died April 5, 1875. They had the following children: Ezra Samuel, Serepta Betsey, David Annis, and John McNab.

Ezra Samuel was born in the log house near the old orchard, December 13, 1816; died down on the river road April 5, 1850.

About 1818 Samuel Currier bought a lot of land, with a framed house thereon situated north of Smith's Mills, and about seventy rods south of the log house. Here his next two children were born: Serepta Betsey, born March 11, 1821; and David Annis, born May 10, 1823.

Previous to 1832 Samuel Currier moved from the Smith Mills neighborhood down onto the new river road, where he built a new framed house on the west side of the road, and on the south side of a ravine nearly opposite a high ledge of rocks. Here his youngest child, John McNab, was born August 4, 1832.

Capt. Samuel Currier was a pioneer settler in the town of Bath. He commenced to buy land before he was 21 years of age; and from 1802 to 1819 purchased several adjacent lots until he owned a farm of nearly three hundred acres, free from debt, and much of it under good cultivation. He was a hard working man. He used to work for lumbermen in taking rafts of lumber down the Connecticut river. In clearing land he burnt the timber, made salts from the ashes; all to aid in paying for his land purchases. On the farm to this day (1910) may be seen ash heaps left after making salts. From the Grafton county records I insert the abstracts of his deeds and mortgages to show his struggles in paying for his land, and the hardships the early settlers had to endure for a livelihood:

“Webster D. Annis yeoman of Bath, N. H., to Samuel Currier yeoman of Ryegate in the county of Calidoney for $200, one-half of a sixty acre lot, it being lot No Thirteen in the second Range of sixty acre lots from the hundred acre Lots west side of Ammanosack river so called, as may appear by the plan of said Town as laid down by Magr Caleb Willard, reference thereto being had; it being the westerly end of said lot, in such manner as the line to run north & south across said Lot. Dated Mar. 2, 1802. Recorded Aug. 25, 1802. Witnesses were Amasa Buck and Isibel Buck.”

“Another deed was given by Zebulun Hunt (his ✕ mark) of Bath, N. H., for $400, on April 22, 1809, recorded April 26, 1809, witnessed by Amasa Buck and Amasa Buck, Jr. Part of the Lot No 13 in the second range of sixty acre lots in the west division it being the easterly end of said lot it being all the land in said Lot except that Part of said lot that I formerly sold to Webster annis which is now owned by said Samuel Currier.”

Daniel Hunt's land, or land lately owned by Daniel Hunt, thence follow on said Hunt's line until it comes to Connecticut River, thence running up the River until it strikes the corner of said Currier's lot that he now lives on, being the sixty acre lots numbered thirteen in the second range of sixty acre lots in the West division thence on the line of said lot to the first mentioned bounds, estimated at twenty-five acres. This deed was recorded Oct. 27, 1813. Witnessed by Jonathan Noyes and Amasa Buck."

"On Nov. 19, 1819 Elisha Presbery of Bath, gave to Samuel Currier, husbandman, of Bath, N. In 1813 and 1814 British vessels were frequently seen cruising along the Atlantic coast. Several times they appeared in a threatening attitude off Portsmouth, N. H., when the military forces were got in readiness to defend the city and Navy yard. It was at a demonstration of this kind, made in September 1814 that detachments were made from many of the regiments of New Hampshire for defence, and Samuel Currier was one who enlisted Sept. 11, 1814, in Capt. Horace Parmelee's company, in Col. Isaac Waldron's regiment, and went with the forces to Portsmouth. He was discharged September 28, 1814, after the excitement subsided. It was said that almost the entire militia of New Hampshire came out voluntarily, and that it was a draft to see who should stay at home rather than to see who should go.

The electrotype plate facing Part Three of this volume is a cut of a Boulder erected to the memory of the first eighteen settlers of Amesbury, Mass., by the Amesbury Improvement Association, at “Golgotha” August 3, 1904. To which Organization the Historical Society is indebted for the loan of the electrotype from which this plate was struck. It is also indebted to Mr. Edward A. Brown of Amesbury, who has kindly type-written the following account from the local press, of the Installation of the Memorial. It will be seen that Richard Currier is the first name in the list.

For some time previous to the above date, a number of the members of the Amesbury Improvement Association, many of them descendents of the first settlers, had conceived the idea of erecting a suitable memorial to those early pioneers, and at a meeting of that body, a committee was appointed to have the matter in charge, and report. After a hearing, it was finally decided to find some historic spot, and have a large boulder placed in position, bearing a bronze tablet, on which would be inscribed the names of the first 18 settlers. It was also voted to secure if possible, the ancient burying-ground locally known as “Golgotha,” situated on a terrace, overlooking the Powow River, have the monument placed in position, and to hold the commemorative exercises, during “Old Home Week” 1904.

The spot above designated, was the first to be selected as a burial-place, by those who had removed from the town of Salisbury, to the west bank of the Powow, and it has been estimated that about 40 persons had been buried there previous to 1663, when the new cemetery was established. In the memory of some of the oldest persons now living, there were a few rough headstones standing in position, but Time and change had obliterated these and the land had long ago, passed into private hands, and was then held by Mr. Frank F. Morrill of Newburyport, a descendent of one of the old Salisbury settlers. On learning the wishes of the Committee, Mr. Morrill generously offered to donate the land for the purpose indicated, and a deed of trust was passed to the Town Improvement Association, to have and to hold, forever.

A fine large bowlder of gneiss was secured from one of the many local moraines, and placed in position in the centre of this hallowed spot, with a tablet bearing the names of Amesbury's original Eighteen, and on the afternoon of the day above named, during "Old Home Week" when hundreds of visitors from all over the Union were looking over the scenes of their ancestors' early lives, the people of the town and their guests repaired to "Golgotha" and the following exercises took place:

1. Invocation by the Rev. E. W. Gibbs.
2. Introductory Remarks by the President of the Association.
3. Address by the Hon. Alden F. White of Salem, Mass.
4. Address by the Hon. Robert T. Davis of Fall River, Mass.
5. Reading of Memorial Hymn and other Poems.
6. Historical Address by Mr. Fred W. Merrill.

A Reception was afterwards held at the Macey-Colby House by the Daughters of the Revolution.

Among those present, directly descended from the first settlers, were Master Franklin Huntington Sargent, eleventh in descent from Wm. Sargent and Wm. Huntington; Master Thomas Macy of Pembroke, N. H., 6 years of age, 10th from Thomas Macy; Pres. of the Day, Cyrus W. Rowell, 8th from Valentine Rowell, and dozens of Bagleys, Baileys, Hoyts, Colbys, Curriers, Barnards and Blaisdells. During the exercises, Masters Sargent and Macy were perched on the top of the stone, and attracted much attention. The addresses of Hon. Alden P. White of Salem and Mr. Frederick W. Merrill of Amesbury were listened to with great attention, and the day will be long remembered by those who were privileged to be present.

JOSEPH CURRIER OF NEWPORT, VERMONT.

In the land records of the town of Newport, Vt., we find that on November 12, 1869, Russell Cummings of Newport deeded to Joseph Currier of Newport, a few acres of land, which he had occupied for five years previously. This Joseph Currier was a French Canadian, a direct descendant from Jacques Cailler who was born in France in 1639 and came to Canada when quite young. Joseph came to Newport before 1858, and had quite a large family of children before that date. He also had brothers and other connections bearing the same name, and some having children; and thus spelling their names. They settled in Newport and adjoining towns; some of them went to Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Many of these older French Caillers were unable to read or write, but gave the pronounciation to those officials with whom they were doing business, which sounded to them like Currier and it was so written. After many years the spelling became established as Currier, and as the young people grew up and were educated, they continued to thus spell their names. These facts are inserted here to aid future genealogists in tracing the descendants of Cailler and Currier, to their true ancestry.

LeCONTES OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the first United States Census Report in 1790, in New Hampshire I find Samuel Leecow appearing as the head of a family in the town of Lyme. There was one other male under 16 years of age, and two females including the head of the family, making four in the family. This name was undoubtedly written for LeConte, the marshal not knowing how to spell it but wrote it down as it was pronounced to him. In no other town of New Hampshire does the name of Leecow or LeConte appear in that Report. I find no deeds in the Grafton County Records running to or from LeConte as early as 1790; so the families must have moved into New Hampshire later than that date, except the one above mentioned. When I was a young boy there was a Moses LeConte, an unmarried man who used to visit about once a year at my father's, in Bath; he then lived in Lyme. He had a brother Ezra LeConte, who also lived in Lyme or some neighboring town. It was then known that they were cousins of my father, Samuel Currier, but I have never been able to trace their family line. I insert these facts, and abstracts of several deeds running to and from several other members of the LeConte Family to show that they were residents of Grafton County, also to aid future genealogists in search of their family history. Moses LeConte died in Lyme between 1850 and 1870. As will be seen by the abstracts of their deeds they spelled their names variously.

On Oct. 23, 1801 Ashal ——— of Lebanon, Conn. & James Murch of Hanover sold a parcel of land to William Lecount of Lime, N. H.

On December 4, 1810 William Leconte of Hanover, N. H., artificer and Shopjoiner deeded 50 acres of land to Ebenezer Lee. Witnesses George Smith and Asenath Smith. Recorded Feb. 12, 1711.

There are several deeds recorded in the Grafton County records in which Ezra LeCount is either grantor or grantee. One is as early as November 12, 1813.

On March 20, 1818 Mills Olcott of Hanover, N. H., deeded to Joshua Palmer of Lime, N. H., and Ezra Le-count of Lebanon, Shoemaker, a tract of land in Lime.

On July 18, 1835 Phineas Wallace of Bethlehem, N. H., sold a parcel of land to Lydia Leconte of Hanover, N. H.

On Oct. 2, 1838 Wm. LeConte and Lydia L. LeConte of Bethlehem, N. H., sold to Allen Thompson their home-stead for $400. Witnessed by John Wilder & Reuben Le-conte. Acknowledged March 26, 1841.

On March 31, 1842 William LeConte and Lydia Le-Conte quit claimed to Lewis Fowler, their rights in a mort-gage in Norwich.

[NOTE:—It will be observed that Prof. A. W. Smith of the University of Michigan, numbers his generations of the Currier Family back to James Currier of Scotland. Harvey L. Currier also numbers the generations of the descendants of Samuel of Haverhill, back to the same James of Scotland, but places an (?) interrogation after each generation. Every one who has made a study of James of Scotland, has been unable to find any data to throw any light upon James' history. Even Prof. Smith does not bring forward any proofs. So far as I have corresponded with those investigators and writers they say the claim rests wholly upon family traditions. But we insert these genealogies in this book that the matter may be studied by future genealogists, and the truth eventually may be reached.—J. M. C.]
